Course Requirements:

(1) Honor Code: It is assumed that you are familiar with the honor code and understand the implications of academic misconduct. Cheating on exams and quizzes will not be tolerated. If you're caught cheating on the quizzes and exams, you will be referred to the honor council.

(2) Absence Policy: You will not be penalized for absences if there is a valid reason and if you have informed me in advance. In cases of illness, a letter from the Student Health Center is required. Three unexcused absences will cost you a letter grade.

(3) Requirements:

(a) As is usually the case, you will read the material in advance before we discuss it in class – so, for instance, when you come to class on January 19th you will have read the required pages from the pre-Socratics

(b) To ensure that you come prepared to class, I will assign homework after every class (via the learnlink conference). You will have to send me this work via email to the following address: akumar6@emory.edu with the subject heading "Phil100: [Author] HW." The homework assigned for a Tuesday class needs to be sent to me by

8pm on Monday, and the homework assigned for a Thursday class needs to be sent to me by 8pm on Wednesday. For the most part, homework will be directly related to the reading assigned for a class.

(c) The pace of the course will be dictated by our progress in class, and the syllabus may have to be changed to accommodate it. New versions of the syllabus (if required) will be sent to you in advance via the learnlink conference. CHECKING THE LEARNLINK CONFERENCE IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY.

(d) There will be a mid-term exam and a final exam. You will also be required to write a 5-6 page essay comparing and contrasting two authors on a particular issue that they both discuss, or critiquing a claim by a particular author. You WILL have to rewrite this essay. There will be no make-up quizzes or exams unless you have a genuine reason for missing them (refer to Absence policy above).

(e) Grading: Overall grades for the course will be calculated according to the following 1000-point scale:

A=	950-1000	B-=	800-832	D=	600-699
A-=	900-949	C+=	767-799	F=	Less than 600
B+=	867-899	C=	733-766
B=	833-866	C-=	700-732

The grade distribution is as follows:

Essay:	25% of the Grade
Final Exam:	30% of the Grade
Midterm:	20% of the Grade
Homework:	15% of the Grade
Class participation:	10% of the Grade

(f) Grading Policy: (i) Grading Homework: If you regularly do the work honestly and send it to me in time, you will get 15% of the grade. Every time you fail to do so, you will lose 10 points.

(ii) Grading the Exams & the Essay: Grading is relative to the class. I will give the best exam/essay an A, and grade the rest in terms of this exam/essay.
