Text: Bettelheim, F.A. and J. March, "General, Organic, & Biochemistry," 5th edition, Saunders College Publishing, New York, 1998.

Scovell, W.M. "Study Guide to Introduction to General, Organic, & Biochemistry by Bettelheim and March," 5th edition, Saunders College Publishing, New York, 1998.

We will cover chapters 1 to 9 this semester.

Attendance: Attendance is required and will be taken every class. Should you be present for every class, a bonus point will be added onto your final average. Should you miss more than three classes, a point per class missed will be subtracted from your final average. An additional point will be subtracted from the final average for every additional day you are absent.

Tests: Tests will be given during the class period on Thursday on the following days:

September 17

October 15

November 5

December 3

The best three of the four tests will be calculated into your grade. If you are late for the test, no extra time will be given. There are no makeup tests. Should a test be missed (only for the most urgent of reasons) that grade will be the one not used in the calculation of your grade if you notify the instructor before the test and the reason is acceptable to the instructor. If the reason is not acceptable to the instructor, the grade for the test will be zero. Should a second or third test be missed, the grade will be zero for the test and will be calculated into your final grade.

Quizzes: Quizzes for 15 to 20 minutes will be given during the class period on Thursdays on the following days:

September 3

September 10

September 24

October 1

October 8

October 22

October 29

November 12

November 19
