The Oxford College Honor Code is in full effect in this course. Each time a student signs their name to an assignment, including the daily attendance sheets, they are pledging to uphold the Honor Code. Signing another student's name to the attendance sheets is a violation of the Honor Code.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Soc/Psyc 212 carries an attendance policy. Each student is allowed three absences from class. Each absence after the third will reduce the student's final score by one point for each day missed. After March 30 when the paper presentations begin, each absence will result in three points being removed from the student's paper presentation score.

Come to class on time every day.
