COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to provide a basic experience in ballet, modern dance and jazz technique.

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES: Specific written instructional objectives will be provided in advance of each written test.

COURSE GOALS:

- Dance may be frustrating at times but it should also be fun.
- Dance technique fulfills the lifetime requirement in the Oxford College physical education requirement. At the end of the semester, students should feel confident (and hopefully interested) to continue to study and practice dance as a lifetime activity.
- At the end of the semester students should enjoy some improvement in motor skills and body awareness.
- At the end of the semester students should be more knowledgeable of dance as an art form and the potential of movement as art
- At the end of the semester students should have basic knowledge of the history of ballet, modern dance and jazz dance and how they are related.

TEXT: Assigned readings are available on electronic reserve. You will need to have Adobe Acrobat Reader on your personal computer to access the electronic reserve online. You can also access them on the computers in the Oxford College library. Some test materials will be given in the form of handouts and class instruction. The course syllabus, calendar and all other handouts for this course are posted on the class conference on LearnLink.

DRESS: Choose from the following dancewear options: leotards, tights, unitards, bicycle pants, sweat pants, sweatshirts, and t-shirts. (no pajamas or shorts) Clothes should be loose enough to allow for freedom but fitted enough to allow for viewing of alignment. You may choose to buy a pair of ballet shoes for ballet and jazz. If you do not choose to buy shoes you should wear socks for ballet and jazz. Modern is performed without shoes or in socks. Secure your hair out of your face and remove large dangling jewelry. Chewing gum is not permitted in a dance class.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Oxford College does not offer distance learning classes. Your presence is an expectation in this class. You are responsible for what is covered in every class. Two (2) absences are permitted without penalty. In a case of a minor illness a sedentary assignment will be available for you to do in class. If this is necessary beyond one class you should make an appointment to discuss your situation with me.

LATE ARRIVALS: It is expected that students will arrive for class on time. Late absences will be recorded as such and, if excessive, will result in a grade penalty. Two (2) late arrivals will be considered excessive and will count as an absence.

CLASS DISRUPTIONS: Common courtesy is an expectation. Anyone who disrupts class in any way, including with a cell phone or another electronic device, may be asked to leave and will subsequently be counted absent.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS: Religious holidays approved by the college may be observed without penalty but I must be informed of your intention to do so in writing and in advance of the holiday.

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES: Regarding your attendance grade (25%), if you find yourself in an extenuating circumstance, it is your responsibility to make an appointment with me as soon as possible to discuss your situation. I will expect you to provide me with a complete record of all of your absences (dates and reasons). All absences should be for valid reasons. There are no excused absences beyond the 2 that are provided but make-up work may be offered at my discretion. The amount of time it takes for you to initiate this meeting and your ability to present your record will be a consideration in my decision to offer (or not offer) make-up work.

ADAPTED SYLLABUS: If you have a physical situation that requires an adapted syllabus, it is essential that you immediately provide specific information from a medical professional explaining what activities are prohibited and what you are still physically able to do. Information can be faxed to me (Gayle Doherty) at 770 784-4677.

ATTENDANCE GRADE: 25% of your grade will be based on participation. Students who do not miss more than 2 classes will receive the full 25 points for attendance.
