Course Introduction

Italian 102 is the second semester of the Elementary Italian sequence: a systematic introduction to basic Italian. All four language skills: speaking, listening comprehension, reading, and writing are stressed to ensure that students acquire a basic command of Italian and an understanding of Italian culture. Classes are conducted in Italian, except when explanations of grammar or other material require the use of English.

Teaching method _A variety of teaching techniques are used. Classroom activities are designed to help students master basic Italian structures by providing daily opportunities to actively use new material in practical communicative situations. Throughout this course, the instructor emphasizes effective communication through linguistic accuracy. The instructor stresses a communicative approach which highlights critical reading and writing from the outset. Creativity, breadth of expression (through syntax and vocabulary) and variations of language (style) in different social context and for different tasks are critical to long term achievement.

Different learners have different learning strategies and styles. It is the instructor's goal to help every student find his or her own best learning techniques. The classroom is a collaborative and supportive environment. Course Goals

Upon completion of Italian 102, students who have attended classes regularly and successfully completed all assignments and all exams ( with a minimum grade of B-) should be able to:

- able to use Italian creatively and independently, based on thorough preparation in four language modalities:
listening, speaking, reading, and writing;
- understand and participate in a simple conversation on everyday topics;
- read edited texts on familiar topics, understand the main ideas, and pick out important information from "authentic" texts such as cultural readings;
- write letters, short essays, notes, or messages providing simple but syntactically accurate information;
- able to communicate effectively beyond immediate and person-centered areas of interest, incorporating broader cultural knowledge into a variety of topics and issues;
- provide information about Italy such as geography cultural traditions and customs;
- use and understand a range of essential vocabulary related to everyday life;
- pronounce Italian well enough and produce Italian with enough grammatical accuracy to be comprehensible to an Italian speaker accustomed to speaking with non-natives;
- familiar with authentic materials and audio-visual resources including the World Wide Web.

Course Requirements: Please note the following important information!

The successful student in this course will be the student who:

- Class Participation is graded on a daily basis. you are required to participate in pair and/or group work on a regular basis in order to improve your speaking skills.
- Class attendance: Students are allowed only three unexcused absences. Each further unexcused absence will count as one point, which will be subtracted from the final examination. If you miss class, it is your responsibility to find out what material was covered in class during your absence and to keep up with the current assignments and classroom materials. A student who is not prepared for class will receive a zero for class participation for that day. The instructor is under no obligation to accept late homework assignments.
- Homework assignments include written assignments as well as exercises and activities to prepare for oral presentation during class. Oral presentation is just as important as all written work and will greatly improve your ability to participate during class.
- Language lab is mandatory. Each student is expected to attend language lab three times per week. Each attendance should not last more than 30 minutes. Audio and video cassette available at the main desk of the library. PLEASE SIGN IN THE DAY AND TIME WHEN YOU BEGIN AND WHEN YOU FINISH.
- Chapter tests. Each test emphasizes the material contained in the chapter and it includes :
  - a) dictation
  - b) listening comprehension
  - c) vocabulary
  - d) grammar
  - e) reading comprehension
  - f) writing.
  - g) questions and answers.

The components of a) reading comprehension, and b) questions and answers will be done on an individual basis with the instructor in her office.

Please note: the written part of the test is worth 70%; the oral part of the test is worth 30%.

□ Essays: Students are expected to write two coherent essays @ 200 words of on an assigned topic. The student should use the vocabulary and structures he or she has learned and practiced in class. This is an opportunity to demonstrate how well you can use the language you are learning; there is no need for extensive use of the dictionary to find new vocabulary words!

Essays will be graded on:

- a) comprehensibility,
- b) quality of the content/information,
- c) use of familiar vocabulary, and
- d) grammatical accuracy.

Each essay will be written twice. On version one, students receive comments about content and grammatical errors. The second version should incorporate the instructor's suggestions and the appropriate corrections. The final grade will be an average of both grades. The first draft is valued 70% of the grade and the final is 30% of the grade.

□ Portfolio The central feature of portfolios is that these samples of evidence demonstrate progress you make toward self-defined objects, whose attainment requires creativity, self-discipline and inter-disciplinarity.

At the end of the semester your portfolio should contain:

- a) 2 essays demonstrating rewrites as indicated by the instructor's first evaluation of the essay,
- b) 1 oral dialogue presentation,
- c) an outline of your final project,
- d) individual vocabulary list and examples of how you are using these words, and
- e) a self evaluation.

- f) Each sample entry in the portfolio must be accompanied by a brief reflection on how and why you chose this document to be in your portfolio, how it was created and in what capacity each one documents a step in learning experience.

HONOUR CODE:

AT ALL TIMES THE STUDENT IS BOUND INSIDE AND OUTSIDE OF CLASS BY THE OXFORD COLLEGE HONOUR CODE. ANY PRESUMABLE VIOLATION OF THE HONOUR ACADEMIC CODE WILL BE BROUGHT TO THE HONOUR COUNCIL (transcriptions and translations from a web site are considered a case of plagiarism if the student does not document fully the material).
