Course Description: This course is designed to increase the students' knowledge and appreciation of the sport of basketball. The course focuses on the historical background, rules and strategies in basketball, and basic business practices in college and professional basketball. Basic skills, technique and strategies are also taught and practiced through participation.

Objectives: Upon completion of the course the student will be able to:

1. Explain the historical background and rules of basketball.
2. Define, understand, and implement basketball strategies.
3. Perform the basic fundamental skills of basketball.
4. Explain basic business practices of basketball.

Value Awareness: Throughout the course the student are challenged to question the bases for basketball and physical fitness as an impact on individual, the family, the community and society in general. The student is encouraged to examine other values and their own values in the application of international and multicultural lifetime fitness activities.

Instructional Activities and Methodology: The developmental and systematic approaches will be employed for teaching this course. Students will have ample opportunities in classroom lectures, discussions, visual aids, and a variety of on-court exercise sessions and game activities to improve their cognitive knowledge and motor skills, and personal health and wellness.

Text: There is no required text for this course. The use of library resources and handouts provided by the instructor will act as study and reference materials for the class.

PERFORMANCE GOALS AND EXPECTATIONS

Assignments: Each student will demonstrate knowledge of subject through written and/or oral examinations, class presentations, and skills test. Each student will be required to complete test and class assignments on assigned dates. Late materials and make-ups are not acceptable unless excused by instructor. Grade Appeal Process: If you wish to appeal the final grade you receive in this class you are to put your request to me in writing within 5 days of final grade posting. Your request must address the specific reasons as to why I should re-examine your grade. I will not respond to informal e-mail messages or appeals submitted after the 5 day deadline.

DIVISIONAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class Attendance Policy:

A. Religious holidays approved by the college may be observed without penalty but your instructor must be informed of your intention to do so in writing and in advance of the holiday.

B. You are expected to attend all classes at the scheduled time; therefore tardiness and absences affect your final grade. A maximum of three (MWF) absences are allowed without penalty. There are no excused absences in this class. If you have to miss a class due to unusual circumstances (serious illness/emergencies), you must communicate your reasons to your instructor prior to the absence via email or voice message; if that is impossible, you must communicate with your instructor as soon as you are able. If you miss three consecutive days it is the instructor's responsibility to report your name to the Office of Academic Services.

C. After the allowed absences (3), each following absence will result in a 5% reduction of your final grade, e.g.,

MWF: 4 absences = 5% reduction; 5 absences = 10% reduction; 6 absences = 15% reduction; 7 absences = 20% reduction; 8 absences = 25% reduction; 9 absences = automatic final grade of F.

D. You are expected to be on time for class. If you arrive after roll call, you are responsible to confirm your presence with your instructor.

E. At the end of the semester, MAKE UP work may be provided at the instructor's discretion. For make-up work to be considered, 1) all absences must be valid 2) you must provide acceptable medical documentation or a reasonable explanation regarding an exceptional circumstance must be provided 3) you must schedule an appointment in a timely manner for the purpose of presenting a record of missed classes and your justification for the absences. Your instructor will decide whether make-up opportunities should be granted and will set a deadline for the completion of such work before final grades are due.

HONOR CODE: Students are expected to adhere to the honor code with reference to all matters relating to the evaluative process of this course. Any violation of Oxford College's HONOR CODE will not be tolerated.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:

NO devices that allow communication via phone, pager, text message, e-mail, etc. are permitted in class. Reoccurring problems will result in disciplinary action as stated in the Oxford College student Handbook. If such communication is needed during class please notify the instructor prior to class. If you have questions or do not understand please see me for clarification.

At the instructors discretion any behavior that disrupts class or is offensive will not be tolerated and will lead to disciplinary action as stated in the Oxford College student Handbook.

Dress code: All students must come to class dressed appropriately for class. (i.e., tennis shoes/sneakers with socks, shorts or athletic pants, a nice t-shirt). No dress shoes, sandals, cut off shorts, blue jeans, old ripped-up T-shirts or T- shirts with negative propaganda.

Important Information:

- Reasonable accommodation for students with writing deficiencies: Students are expected to have developed certain competencies necessary for success in college. If you have not developed the competencies needed to function at this level, you will be required to do so, in order to pass this course. For this reason, referrals to the writing center are required. Students with identified or suspected disabilities of any kind should contact the Writing Center located in Language Hall (770-784-4722). No special arrangements will be made for any student unless the instructor is contacted directly via official request from this office.
- Reasonable accommodation for students with disabilities: If you have a disability that may require assistance or accommodation, or you have questions related to any accommodations for testing, note takers, readers, physical activity, etc., please speak with me as soon as possible. Students may also contact the Office of Disability Services (404-727-6016) with questions about such services. It is the student's responsibility to initiate considerations; all students must self-disclose to ODS and complete the registration process.
- Class activities may include vigorous activities. If you have any medical condition or physical problems to prevent you from full participation in such activity, it is your responsibility to inform the instructor of its nature and provide documentation from your physician stating 1) the medical condition, 2) limitations of the condition, and 3) recommendations that would help you meet the requirements of the course. Students may also contact the Office of Disability Services (404-727-6016).
