History 102

History of Western Civilization II

This course examines selected topics in European political, economic, social, and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present. Emphasis is given to themes of continuity and change as Europe experienced political, scientific and industrial revolutions in the eighteenth century, revolutions, conservative reactions, reforms and imperialism in the nineteenth century and two world wars, fascism, communism and the Cold War in the twentieth century.

Required Readings:

Kishlansky, Geary & O'Brien, Civilization in the West, Vol. II, 5th ed.

Voltaire, Candide

Henrick Ibsen, "A Doll House" in Four Major Plays: Vol. I

Arthur Koestler, Darkness at Noon

Art Spiegelman, Maus: A Survivor's Tale

In addition there will be some photocopied handouts.

Grading:

Grades will be calculated as follows:

Exam I: 25%

Exam II: 25%

Class Participation and Quizzes: 20%

Final Exam: 30%

Make-up examinations for the midterms will be given only for medical reasons, and will require a physician's note. Arrangements for missed final exams must be made through the Dean's office. Students should take examination date into account when making their travel arrangements. There will be no make-ups for missed quizzes.

Students are to abide by the Oxford College Honor Code. If you are not familiar with it, please refer to the Honor Code Booklet.
