Mr. Harris –Fall 2002

Goals/Purpose

It is the purpose of this course to develop the basic skills of badminton. These skills include but are not limited to (backcourt clear, backcourt drop, smash, high-clearing serve, shout-low serve, net clear, net drop, service return, smash, return, drive, and all related movement).

Course Description

This course is designed for the student with very little knowledge of the game of badminton with all students considered as beginners. Skills and elementary strategy will be taught for both singles and doubles play with the discussion of all rules and regulations.

Text

Badminton, James Poole

Dress/Equipment

Students should wear tennis or basketball shoes. Comfortable, loose-fitting, athletic wear is encouraged. Students are expected to furnish their own badminton rackets.

Attendance

Students will be exposed to new skills on a daily basis with course content unfolding rapidly. Regular attendance is very important. An individual may incur three absences without penalty. These absences are to be used for illness, emergencies, religious holidays, etc. Students absent more than three times will have two points per absence subtracted from their final grade.

A student that is late for class on two occasions will be considered absent on one occasion.

Extra Credit

An opportunity for extra credit exists in the form of spontaneous class presentations, skill demonstrations, and specified outside participation in badminton-related activities. These points will be added to the student's final grade.

Homework

Each session of homework is to be performed in 30-minute minimum increments. A student is encouraged to spread the homework sessions over the three week span. It is preferred that not more than one homework session be performed on any given day. (A student is allowed to perform an additional homework session provided there exists a morning/afternoon/evening separation between the homework sessions.) Only those skills that have been taught in class should be practiced at any given time. An attended help session will count as a homework session. Homework slips may be picked up from the equipment-room manager or from security.
