

OXFORD COLLEGE Physical Education Division

PE126 GOLF - Dr. Shappell - SPRING 1993

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for the neophyte or for the individual with limited experience in golf. The student will attempt to learn and demonstrate the grip, stance, address, backswing, downswing and follow through. Later, students will use selected clubs and engage in hitting balls with these clubs with particular attention paid to proper swing technique. Further instruction includes golf course playing management and situations, the rules of the game and terminology.

TEXT

No Text is required! Information will be disseminated via video tapes, demonstrations and lectures.

INSTRUCTION

Beginning lessons will be taught in the gymnasium. Video tapes and demonstrations form the basis for early instruction.

Later, classes will be held at the Golf Training Center on the I-20 access road.

LECTURES/READINGS/HANDOUTS

Cognitive material for which each student must assimilate includes club selection, etiquette, golf course management, rules, trouble shots and a golf glossary.

Students will be tested on this material via a mid-term exam and a final exam.

GOLF PLAY

Completion of 18 holes of golf. This requirement may be satisfied by playing two nine-hole sessions. (150 points)
