Catalog Description:

Basic physiological principles for the development of cardiovascular fitness, flexibility, muscular strength, and endurance. Includes individualized rigorous swimming and conditioning program.

Course Objectives:

- To develop specific fitness components through improved stroke technique and lap swimming
- To develop, improve and/or maintain cardiovascular and muscular endurance
- To enhance practical and cognitive knowledge of swimming
- To establish an individual and enjoyable physical activity program that may be maintained throughout life
- Related topics will include nutrition, body composition, muscular endurance and strength, weight management, and physiological/psychological benefits of swimming

Prerequisite:

Students should have a well-developed freestyle stroke with rhythmic breathing and an understanding of the backstroke and/or breaststroke.

Minimum Standard of Proficiency

A 12-minute prerequisite swim will be administered to evaluate student's ability. Students must be able to complete 350 yards in this time frame.

Course Text:

There is no required text for this course. The following text is available on reserve in the library: Fit & Well. Core Concepts and Labs in Physical Fitness: Thomas Fahey, Paul M. Insel & Walter T. Roth. Mayfield Publishers. 6th edition.

Class Participation and Contribution:

- In order to pass this course you must actively participate and contribute during each class meeting. Missing more than three classes will result in a 5-point reduction in your grade per additional absence. If you believe you have justification for an absence to be excluded you must discuss this with me in person.
- I will take attendance at the beginning of class. You are expected to be on the pool deck in swimming attire ready to participate at the start of class time. Lateness will not be tolerated. Three late arrivals (not in class within 5 min of the start time) will be equivalent to one absence.
- Come to class!! Even if you do not feel well enough to participate there are other ways you can contribute so that your grade will not be penalized.
- There will be NO MAKE UPS for written work or skills tests unless you have medical documentation or you make prior arrangements with me regarding an exceptional circumstance.
