COURSE OUTLINE

English 101 – Expository Writing

Dr. Lucas Carpenter

Fall 2003 Semester

I. Objectives of the Course

Through class participation, the close reading of assigned works, in-class writing exercises and tests, six formal essays, a research paper, and a final examination, the student will be graded on his/her ability:

- A. To organize and develop ideas through the use of specific information.
- B. To construct outlines illustrating that sufficient material has been gathered and organized according to the laws of unity, emphasis and coherence.
- C. To demonstrate orally and in writing a command of style, sentence structure, paragraph development, grammar, spelling, punctuation and vocabulary.
- D. To write college-level essays and a research paper which show a mastery of the fundamentals of effective expository writing.

II. Student Requirements for Completing the Course

- A. Brief unannounced quizzes may precede assigned readings. There are no make-ups for missed quizzes.
- B. Several in-class writing assignments. There are no make-ups for these assignments.
- C. Six formal essays (3 printed pages) to be assigned later. One letter grade will be deducted for each day a paper is late.
- D. A research paper (8-10 printed pages). One letter grade will be deducted for each day a research paper is late.
- E. A final examination composed of factual and essay questions.
- F. Satisfactory participation in class discussion, which can only be accomplished if the attendance policy is rigorously observed.

III. Grading Practices

The grade will be determined by an evaluation of the entire semester's work, with special emphasis on fulfillment of course objectives. Grading will generally adhere to the following:

Class participation	5%
Quizzes and in-class writing	15%
Six essays	50%
Research paper	15%
Final examination	15%

IV. Attendance Policy

- A. Although attendance is not mandatory, it is to the student's distinct benefit to be present in class, and the student will be held responsible for any assignments made when he/she is absent. After one absence, one point will be deducted from the final grade for each additional absence.
- B. Students who are late must assume personal responsibility to see that the record is altered at the end of class. This record will not be changed at a later date.
