Sociology 101 is a broad survey course designed for the first-time student of sociology. It will cover a wide range of topics and consists of a lecture-discussion format. The exams will include multiple choice, definitions, and short essays. Spelling, punctuation, and grammar are important and will count in the calculation of your grade.

Each student will participate in a panel discussion and will lead the class in a discussion of the social issues under discussion on that day. All final grades for this class will be based a curve at the end of the semester. Your final grade will be a function of your rank ordering among all students enrolled in your section.

This course will employ the plus-minus grading system. The grades of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, F will be used in Soc 101.
