University Requirements

Special Needs: The University of Texas at Austin provides upon request appropriate academic accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. To determine if you qualify, please contact the Dean of Students at 512-471-6259; TTY 512-471-4641.

Religious Holy Day Observance: If an assignment or exam falls due on a day when you are observing a religious holy day, we will work with you to find a time to submit the work.

Honor Code: The core values of the University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the University is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.

Plagiarism: As a research university, the University of Texas at Austin takes plagiarism very seriously. You may read about plagiarism at <http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/sjs/academicintegrity.html>.

Students with Disabilities

Please contact us as early as possible should you need any accommodations to help you succeed in class.

Safety information: Occupants of buildings on The University of Texas at Austin campus are required to evacuate buildings when a fire alarm is activated. Alarm activation or announcement requires exiting and assembling outside.

Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of each classroom and building you may occupy. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when entering the building. Students requiring assistance in evacuation shall inform their instructor in writing during the first week of class.

In the event of an evacuation, follow the instruction of factuality or class instructors. Do not re-enter a building unless given instructions by the following: The University of Texas at Austin Police Department, or Fire Prevention Services Office.

Policy on Late Assignments

Students are informed of due dates at the beginning of the semester and are expected to adhere to these deadlines. Changes to due date will be communicated via Canvas. Late assignments will not receive full credit.

Description of Assignments

- Interview Assignment Due: October 21st, 2018
Students will interview someone who is employed in a position they may be interested in pursuing and write a two-page reflection paper and give a 10-minute presentation in class. Students should answer: Who did you talk to, how did you set up the interview, why this person, what field are they in, a quick bio, and a takeaway.
 - October 2, 2018 turn in a list of three potential interviewees.
- Self-Analysis Assignment Due: September 3 and December 5
Students will write a reflective two-page paper on what they learned about themselves during the fall semester. More directions on this assignment will be included on Canvas.

➤ Presentation on Resources + Campus Events Due: September 19, October 17, and November 14

Students will put effort into developing their presentation skills by speaking orally to the class about 2 resources on campus AND 1 career event. Students should visit a resource/event and report back on: where they went, when, what they did, how it helped, and if they would recommend it to others. Examples can include Sanger, PCL Writing Lab, Mind Body Lab, a workshop, Career office, Career event, etc.

*Bring back 4 BUSINESS CARDS as proof of attendance from job fairs. ****

* KHE Internship/Job Fair → → October 3*

* ALD Internship/Job Fair → → October 23*

➤ Resume + Cover Letter Due: November 7, 2018

Students will turn in a resume and cover letter for a potential job they want to apply for. You may use resources such as: Hire a Longhorn, HireUTexas, LinkedIn, Indeed, or even tips from your interview assignment. Students can also use the Resources assignment to visit the Career Office, or Writing Lab for a workshop on resumes and cover letters.

➤ Participation and Attendance

Additional absences after two will result in reduction in participation and attendance points. If absences are due to family emergency such as death or illness in the family, please provide official documentation.

You will receive full participation points when you are actively engaged which means you are providing input, making eye contact with peers, actively pay attention, awake, you avoid completing homework in class, your phone is off, you arrive on time, you stay in class the full time etc.

➤ Surveys: Periodically throughout the semester we will ask you to fill out anonymous questionnaires in order to engage the progress of the class.
